LIQUOR LICENSES GRANTED.

Matters Attended to By the Board of Aldermen Last Night.

The board of aldermen met last night, all present except Alderman Shaw. The mayor was in the chair.

The school committee made a report recommending the payment to the State Normal College of an increased allowance to meet the growing demands of the graded school taught at the college. Adopted.

Applications for license to retail liquor were considered. E. G. Newcomb, J. R. Coble, E. G. West, R. P. Gorrell, C. H. Coble, S. J. McCauley, and B. J. Fisher, were recommended for license. The consideration of the application of Braxton Armon was continued.

The board fixed the salary of the city engineer at $50 per month. The election of city engineer was postponed until next meeting.

The board's attention was called to the condition of the town clock, and on motion of Alderman Pickard a committee of two was appointed to look into the matter. The clock needs painting and a canvass is needed to cover the works.

A proposition was received from C. E. Holton and J. C. Murchison in regard to putting drain pipes across E. Market street. Referred to street committee with power to act.

Alderman Lewis asked that the fire engine house be connected with the sewer. Referred to firemen's committee.

The license or privilege tax was fixed the same as last year.

The plans for a bridge across North Buffalo near the water works was presented. Alderman McKinney moved that the plans as drawn be accepted, and the street committee be authorized to build the bridge.

Adjourned.

LINNEY STILL HOPEFUL,

The Report That He Admitted His Defeat is Untrue.

A report sent last Wednesday from the twin-cities stated that Mr. R. Z. Linney had admitted to Congressman Skinner that he was already defeated for the nomination as representative of the Eighth district. This report is entirely false as the two dispatches to the Charlotte Observer, given below, prove:

Editor of the Observer:

The report in the newspapers that I admitted to Congressman Skinner that I was defeated is false. Mr. Skinner has wired The Observer that it is false. No one but a moral idiot, operating an incubator to hatch lies, would have started such a report. Please let this mild denial appear in The Observer.

Very truly,
R. Z. Linney.

On Train, June 23, 1898.

Editor of The Observer;

The published statement that Representative Linney had admitted to me that he was defeated, is absolutely false. Harry Skinner.

The Singin Skule Good and Funny.

The "Singin Skule" which the ladies of West Market Street Church are preparing to present at the court house Friday night, July 1st, has been a great laughing success all through the south. The Wilmington Messenger of January 5th says: "Mr. Jedediah Bobbins 'Singing Skule' was presented last evening in the spacious Y. M. C. A. auditorium and met with fine success. The entertainment was of course funny and was produced by a large cast of Wilmington's talented young people, each costumed in accord with the character he or she played. Mr. Bertram's Precilly Bobbins and Mr. Willard's Jedediah Bobbins were very amusing characters. In fact the entire performance was highly amusing and entertaining. Each of the participants was the recipient of hearty applause."

Greatly Enjoyed.

Mr. J. H. West, who as a caterer has few equals, brought into the Telegram office a freezer of his cream this afternoon. The cream was splendid and was much enjoyed. Mr. West has the everlasting thanks of the whole force for his thoughtfulness and generosity.

Had a Finger Mashed.

While examining some new cider mills received by the Greensboro Hardware company today Mr. M. C. Stewart, one of the firm, had the misfortune to catch the middle of his left hand in some cog-wheels. The end of the finger was badly mashed and caused Mr. Stewart severe pain for awhile. The finger was dressed and Mr. Stewart returned to the store and further examined the mill with "hands off and eyes on."

FIERCEST BATTLE IN CUBA.

Yasterday's Engagement Graver Than First Reported.

CITY OF SANTIAGO IS DOOMED.

Sunday We Will be at the City's Gates—Army and Navy Will Make a Concerted Attack.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Plaza del Este, June 25—Later reports indicate yesterday's action as much graver than the first information received stated. The rough riders undoubtedly fought against great odds as the Spaniards had much the best position though in numbers the contending troops were about equal. The official list of the injured is withheld by the medical department. Colonel Wood's first report states that ten were killed and forty wounded. It is generally accepted that the advance on Santiago will be a succession of bushwhacking.

The following is the latest list obtainable of the persons killed in yesterday's battle: Capt. Dapron, Sergeant Hamilton Fish, Jr., Privates Tillman, Doughtery, Crews Culver, Dawson, Heffner and Erwin, of the Rough Riders and Corporal Wheeler and privates Kolbe, York, Dickson, Lennark, Burling and Captain Luna, of the First cavalry of the Cuban army.

FIRST DESPATCH.

Washington, June 26—The first despatch from General Shafter concerning the engagement between the Spanish and American forces reached the war department at noon from Baquiri. Further news from Gen. Wheeler places the American loss at ten killed and forty wounded. The wounded are: Major Brodie, Capt. McClintock, Lieut. Thomas, Major Bell, Capt. Knox, Lieut. Byram. Capt. Knox was seriously wounded. Capt. Wainwright, reported wounded, is uninjured. Capt. Capron was killed. Names of others killed and wounded unknown. Spaniards occupied a strongly entrenched position on a high hill and the firing lasted for an hour. The enemy was driven from the position which is now occupied by the Americans, about a mile and a half from Seville. The enemy retired toward Santiago.

SANTIAGO'S DEATH KNELL.

Washington, June 25—General Miles believes a final concerted assault on Santiago began this morning and will be continued until the city surrenders. Secretary Long received a cablegram from Admiral Sampson announcing a proposed bombardment of the harbor batteries to begin and continue until all of them are silenced. When this is accomplished he will force an entrance into the harbor. General Miles and Secretary Long both expect quick and decisive work by both arms of America's fighting force.

SANTIAGO BY SUNDAY.

Port Antonia, June 25—The latest despatches from the army estimate that the American troops will storm the outside intrenchments today and will be at the gates of Santiago by Sunday. If capable of holding the advantage the Cubans will be given the post of honor. A junction has been formed between Generals Garcia and Castillo. It is reported the troops stand in great need of horses.

THE SPANISH VERSION.

Madrid, June 25—An official report from General Blanco says that in an attack by American soldiers on the Spaniards yesterday morning the Yankees were repulsed and put to flight with the Spaniards in hot pursuit, taking possession of ammunition and clothes left behind by the fleeing Americans. The Spanish loss was three killed and three wounded. The report also says the Americans bombarded Cazilda.

ADMITS RETREAT.

Madrid, June 25—A despatch from General Linares has been received. The general admits that the Spaniards have retreated to the defenses around Santiago.

A FIGHT OFF SAN JUAN?

At Least Porto Rico Says So--St. Paul or St. Louis Close By.

Madrid, June 24—An official despatch from Porto Rico says that an American cruiser appeared off San Juan yesterday at noon. The Spanish cruiser Isabel II, and the torpedo boat Terror went out to fight her, and a battle followed in which the Spaniards had one man killed and three wounded. The American ship retired.

Washington, June 24—The navy department has not received any despatches confirming the report from Madrid that the Spanish cruiser Isabel II. had an engagement with an American vessel off San Juan, Porto Rico. The St. Paul or the St. Louis is supposed to be in that neighborhood.

The Isabel II. is a third-class iron cruiser carrying eighteen guns. Admiral Cervera left the Terror at Fort de France when his squadron sailed from Martinique, and she later went to San Juan. Of course none of our auxiliary cruisers would be authorized to give battle to any vessel of important fighting power.

SPANISH TROOPS HOPELESS

Without Food and Ammunition They Wish to Surrender.

HAWAIIAN ARMY TO OUR AID.

A Peaceful Attack on Havana Planned—On to Porto Rico—Spaniards Use Brass Cartridges.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Kingston, Jamaica, June 25—In correspondence received from Fernandina Miller, second Spanish commander at Santiago, the true condition of Spanish troops is made known. The Generals says there is a scarcity of food, powder and ammunition and the insurgents have cut off every source of supplies. The troops are disheartened and are openly clamoring for surrender, expressing the opinion that the present war is murder, and Spain should never have entered into it. The General adds: "We were morally defeated from the first campaign and the war can now only result in loss of blood, treasure and credit."

CAUSE OF DELAY.

Washington, June 25—It is now known that secret instructions were given to the commander of the cruiser Charleston, on his departure with four troopships to reinforce Admiral Dewey, to stop at Gauban Island in the Ladrone group of islands and to dismantle the fortifications there so the Monitor Monterey could coal, water and provision on her arrival. The instructions are believed to have caused the delay in reaching Manila, but the navy department is confident that they are very near there now.

SIGNAL CORPS OFF.

Brooklyn, June 25—The United States volunteer signal corps left here this morning for Washington where they will receive equipments and instructions.

THE CADIZ FLEET.

London, June 25—A despatch from Algiers confirms the reports that the Cadiz fleet has passed the island of Pantellaria in the Mediterranian going east.

TO PROTECT BRITISH INTERESTS.

London, June 25—The British battleship Illustrious has sailed for Lisbon to protect British interests there in view of possible war developments.

HAWAIIANS WILL AID US.

San Francisco, June 25—Advices received today from Honolulu say orders have been issued to the members of the Hawaiian national guard to report immediately to their commanding officers and receive equipment fitting them for duty. It is the intention of the ministry to be in readiness to aid the United States whether Hawaii is annexed to the United States or not. The people are hopeful of an early annexation.

PLAN OF ATTACK ON HAVANA.

Washington, June 25—An official says the probable plan of attack on Havana will be for the troops to surround the city and take possession of the table lands in order to cover every point of approach, and to conduct a peaceful seige which would do away with large fatalities sure to follow an immediate attempt to storm the Spanish citadel and also place the troops in a healthful region. Not less than seventy-five thousand men would be needed if the plan should be adopted.

USED BRASS CARTRIDGES.

Washington, June 25—Advices received from Camp McCalla, on Guantanamo Bay, state that in the captured ammunition from the Spaniards have been found large quantities of pure brass cartridges which in civilized warfare it is forbidden to be used. This explains the horrible mutilation of the bodies of dead American soldiers.

TO INVADE PORTO RICO.

Washington, June 25—General Miles and Secretary Alger, in conference today, decided to reinforce General Shafter's army with fifteen thousand more troops. Miles is pushing arrangements to land men in Porto Rico as soon as possible.

PEACEFUL PATRIOTISM.

London, June 25—All despatches from Madrid reflect great anxiety caused by Admiral Cervera's depatch and the present alarming political situation. The ministry does not anticipate any trouble among the population as patriotic feeling predominate, though they tend strongly toward peace and a desire for the immediate opening of negotiations looking to an end of the war.

Not a Cabinet Maker.

Paris, June 25—M. Feytral, who was asked by President Faure to form a cabinet, has abandoned the task.

COOK TURNED DOWN.

Calvin D. Cowles Will Be Appointed Brigadier General.

The strong opposition to the appointment of Charles A. Cook as brigadier general has been successful. Yesterday it was learned that Lieutenant Colonel Calvin D. Cowles, Jr., of the First regiment, gets the place. The appointment of an old and tried army officer instead of a man whose experience in martial tactics is limited and had been gained by watching the evolutions of his home company has met the approval of nearly every one. Col. Cowles entered West Point in 1869 and is the oldest graduate from North Carolina in the regular army. His nomination will probably be sent to the senate today and the problem that has worried various republican politicians throughout the state for several weeks is at last solved. Cowles is from Wilkes county.

HOBSON'S WHEREABOUTS.

After declaring it to be his purpose to consider no flag of truce propositions it seems passing strange that General Blanco should suddenly become possessed with a desire to send out emissaries of his own under a white ensign. And, too, that these men should carry to the American admiral information of the whereabouts of Lieutenant Hobson and his fellow prisoners. It was stated with labored particularity that the brave commander of the Merrimac and its crew are not confined in Morro Castle, but are in the city four miles away. It is possible that the aforementioned particularity of statement, evidently inspired by General Blanco, is due to a desire for accuracy; but it is more probable, in view of his previous assertions made to Madrid, that the wily Spaniard has some ulterior motive. As a means of protection to Santiago from an attack by land, he has massed in the city large forces of Spanish troops, whose state of health and well being would not be materially improved by received shells from the American fleet. The armament of Morro Castle would be mere pop guns in protecting the city from capture, and, being thus placed in a dilemma, it may be that the General has decided to accept the less of two evils and lose Morro. On the other hand, he may think it more consistent with Spanish honor to allow Hobson and his companions to remain in Morro and become the victims of the accuracy of Yankee gunnery. The brilliant scheme of General Machias at San Juan would tend to give plausibility to this theory, not to mention the traditional treachery of the Spaniards. Just where Hobson and the crew are can not, we believe, be definitely stated by an American, as Blanco's message, instead of clearing up matters, has served only to make them more dark and uncertain.

It has been announced by President Eliot that a course of instruction in the science of war will be added next year to the curriculum of Harvard University. In due time, therefore, we may expect to see the degree of Doctor of Strategy added to the honors conferred upon its graduates by that ancient institution of learning.—Philadelphia Record.

As it is not stated that President Eliot has made a requisition on the administration for members of the board of strategy to teach in this new department it may be that the paper Admirals have filed their applications for admission to the freshman class and are contemplating taking this degree.

The fire crackers and roman candles France did not burn when she heard of the battle of Manila might be expressed to Madrid.

In view of the suffering caused by vaccinated arms, the solders at Raleigh begin to realize the truth of General Sherman's spicy epigram in regard to war.

It can not be truthfully said that Spain is derelict in her duty to her heroes killed in war. The remains of the Matanzas mule were laid to rest with all the pomp and glory of a military burial.

SATURDAY'S LITERARY CHAT.

[All books and magazines mentioned below may be had at Wharton's book store.]

Mary E. Wilkins, who unsparingly, yet lovingly, portrays her New England folk, presents another one of her delightful books of sketches to an already large circle of admirers. Her book bears a charactic title: "Silence and Other Stories."

***

H. G. Wells, whose reputation as a writer of fantastic and wierd sketches and romances has won for him the title of "The Scientific Romantist," launches another book on the sea of mystery. His latest book, "The Invisible Man: a Grotesque Romance," fully sustains the claim that he is a disciple of Jules Verne.

***

Every outdoor exercise has in turn played its part as a setting for some romantic or sentimental story. Nearly all the writers of this class of literary work have fought shy of the game of golf as a fitting background for their mental efforts. But at last one writer has the temerity to select golf sticks as the distaffs from which to wind the threads for the weaving of his dainty romances. This honor falls to W. G. Van T. Sutphen whose six little sketches in "Golficide and Other Tales of the Fair Green" are both quaint and fascinating.

***

Frank R. Stockton increases the census of readers of his bewildering stories with "The Girl of Cobhurst." This story deals with life in a country town.

***

Scribner's for July contains many articles relating to the war. Richard Harding Davis writes two sketches as he saw it from the deck of the New York. In the "First Shot" and "First Bombardment" he vividly describes the effect of Sampson's shells on Spanish fortifications. "Manila and the Philipines," by the Hon. Isaac M. Elliot, ex-consul to Manila, gives one a clearer insight of the life and conditions in Uncle Sam's latest possessions. Capt. A. T. Mahan has an article on "John Paul Jones in the Revolution." The series of articles on undergraduate college life is continued and we are given a peep into the doings of the girls at Smith College. Four poems and installments of the "Story of the Revolution," "Red Rock," "The Workers," and "The King's Jackal" are included in the contents of this issue.

***

Harpers for July has stories by Julian Ralph, William McLennan, Frederick Remington, Margaret Briscoe, Margaret Deland, and George Hibbard; a "travel article" on Eastern Siberia, by Stephen Bonsal, "Notes on Journalism," by George W. Smalley; a study of "New Words and Old," by Brander Matthews, and poems and other contributions to interest and instruct. Mr. John Kendrick Bangs takes up the department of "Literary Notes," surrendered by Lawrence Hutton, and makes his bow to the public in this number.

***

A new edition of Cable's "Grandissimes" is to be published, and James Barrie has written a preface to it, telling his own adventures in the Crescent City.

***

The Pall Mall Magazine for July reflets current English desires for an alliance by publishing on its cover a a British and American flag joined together with a wreath of victory and placing below a stanza from Longfellow's "Ship of State." In contents the matter is varied, ranging from light love stories to deep discussions of war problems. An article on "The Evolution of Comfort in Railway Traveling" treats of the luxury of travel on American railways. The first installment of "The Ship: Her Story," by Clark Russell, deals with craft from old Noah's time and the changes in their lines up to galleys of the Romans. The next installment will deal with vessels of more modern architecture. The last installment of Anthony Hope's "Rupert of Hentzau" appears in this issue. Among the list of contributors is a Virginian, Robert F. Balwin, of Norfolk. "A Bundle of Letters" is used to tell a delightful little love story laid in the valley of Blacksburg. Taken as a whole this issue of the magazine is on a par with any published in America.

***

Sir Walter Besant's papers on South London will be published in book form.

***

Frederick Harrison is at work on a volume of essays concerning "Victorian Influences."

***

Marley Roberts has completed a new novel of adventure, "Reasons of State," the scene of which is laid in Persia.

***

"The Monks of the Holy Tear" is the curious title of an historic novel by Mrs. Kingscote.

I cannot say enough for its merits.' Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. If We Only Knew!

If all nursing mothers could only know the true worth of Mrs. Joe Persons Remedy, a world of suffering and trouble would be saved. It is the greatest medicine I ever tried in my life. I have a large family of children, and I do believe I am indebted to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for having raised them all. When anything is the matter with my children I give them the Remedy, and there is never any need to give them soothing syrups, paregoric and things of that kind. The Remedy keeps them well and healthy, especially when teething, and they never need anything else. One of my babies had sore eyes, so that the eyes had to be kept shaded all the time, and the Remedy cured her. I cannot say too much for it. If everybody knew what it would do, and try it, a world of suffering would be saved.

Runs the Blockade.

Madrid, June 53—In the Chamber of Dupities today, Captain Aunon, minisler of marine, read the following official dispatch from Havana:

"The Spanish auxiliary cruiser Maria Christina has succeeded in running the blockade and has entered Cienfuegos, with a large cargo of provisions and war stores."

A dispatch to El Imparcial from Havana, says: "The cruiser Reina Christina escaped from Santiago and after running the gauntlet of the entire American fleet, safely reached Havana.

"Three fast American cruisers pursued her near Havana. It was an exciting chase, but the Americans did not venture within the range of the Havana forts."

ORIGIN OF THE BICYCLE.

It May Be Traced as Far Back as the Seventeenth Century.

In St. Nicholas Frank H. Vizetelly has told "The Story of the Wheel," tracing the evolution of the bicycle. Mr. Vizetelly says:

It has been often said that "to trace the origin of the bicycle we must go back to the beginning of the century," and as this has not been denied it is probably true. I shall try to show that the bicycle grew from experiments in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries, and that the celerifere, first invented in 1690, was the earliest form of the "safety" of today. The first attempts to ride wheels date back as far as the fifteenth century. True, the machines then made were crude, clumsy and imperfect, yet they deserve mention, for they were a distinct step in the history of the wheel. The first of these was a heavy carriage driven by means of ropes attached to and wound round its axle tree. To the other end of the ropes a pole was tied, and this pole was used as a lever in front of the vehicle, and by this means it was slowly drawn forward.

Little was done in the century following, yet in the "Memoirs of Henry Fetherstone" it is told that a Jesuit missionary named Ricius, who was traveling down the Ganges, having missed a boat that plied at regular intervals between points he was to visit in his journey, made up for lost time by building a small carriage propelled by levers. Because so few details are told, the truth of the author's account has been doubted or discredited by many.

In one of England's older churches—St. Giles' at Stoke Pogis—is a window of stained glass on which may be seen a cherub astride of a hobby horse, or wooden "wheel." At the sides, in separate panels, as if to fix the date of the design, stand two young men attired in Puritan dress, one playing the violin, the other, with hands in his pockets, smoking a pipe. Is it from this design that the first thought of the hobby horse of other days was taken?

Before the Royal Academy of Sciences, in 1693, Ozanam read a paper describing a vehicle driven, by the pedaling of a footman, who stood in a box behind and rested his hands on a bar level with his chin attached to the back of an awning above the rider in the conveyance. This may prove that Fetherstone's account was not untrue. Ozanam's vehicle was followed by another, built on a somewhat similar plan, by an Englishman named Ovenden about 1761, for a description of the machine then appeared in The Universal Magazine. The vehicle was said to be "the best that has hitherto been invented." The distance covered "with ease" by this rude vehicle is stated to have been six miles an hour; with a "peculiar exertion," nine or ten miles. The steering was done with a pair of reins.

Resignation Asked.

It is learned in Charlotte that a controversy by letter has recently been in progress between Judge Walter Clark, of the Supreme court, and Dr. J C. Kilgo, D. D., president of Trinity College, and that a meeting of the trustees of this institution last week, Dr. Kilgo laid the correspondence before the board, and asked for an investigation of the charges brought by Judge Clark. The investigation was made, the result being that Dr. Kilgo was sustained and that the resignation of Judge Clark as a member of the board of trustees was requested. Charlotte Observer.

A BICYCLE RACE

Will be a Feature of the Battle Ground Celebration.

A movement is on foot in bicycle circles to have a road race from the Battle Ground to Greensboro as one of the features of this year's celebration. The idea is rapidly gaining supporters and it may now be said that such a race will be run. Mr. W. A. Wingate has the matter in charge. It is proposed to have two races—one for boys and another for men. Six handsome prizes will be offered, three to each class of riders. The number that will be allowed to enter the race is limited and so anyone who wishes the race should give his name to Mr. Wingate at once. The boys' race will be run at four and the men's at five o'clock. Mr. Wingate reports that he has received much encouragement and the bicycle race will be a success.

The Contest Closed.

The cooking contest at the Greensboro Hardware company's closed today and the handsome prize was won by May Barrett, who lives at 337 South Ashe street. The result yesterday was a tie between Pearl Royster and May Barrett, and the tie was united this morning with result as above announced.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. A Freight Wreck.

The early train from Raleigh due here at 6:45 was four hours late today, arriving here at 10:45. The delay was caused by a wreck on the Norfolk & Carolina railroad. A freight train became uncoupled and smashed together again wrecking several freight cars, piling them up on the track. The passengers on the Raleigh train coming this way and on the train which left here at 10:50 last night were transferred at the scene of the wreck. A passenger on the westbound train tells us that at six o'clock this morning the wrecking crew had arrived, but had not gotten to work. One brakeman could not be found and it is supposed his body is buried in the wreck.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me, I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for 20 years. Respectfully, Mrs. Mary A. Beard, Claremore, Ark. Sold by C. E. Holton.
